1. ACAC Website Terms of Use

Terms of Use

Thank you for visiting the website of the Australian Consortium for Aged Care (ACAC).

ACAC is a consortium of leading researchers in aged care and implementation science and was founded by members from the South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute (SAHMRI), The University of Queensland and Macquarie University. ACAC partnering institutions include the University of South Australia, Flinders University and the University of New South Wales. A reference to 'we', 'our' or 'us' in these Terms of Use refers to SAHMRI and its partnering institutions.

These Terms of Use govern the use of this Website. Please read them carefully before you access this Website. We may vary the Terms of Use from time to time, so you should review the Terms of Use each time you use the Website. By accessing the Website, you acknowledge that you have read, understood and accept the Terms of Use.

We have used care in preparing the content of this Website. However, to the extent permitted by applicable law, we give no express or implied warranty as to the accuracy, completeness and reliability of this content unless otherwise indicated, and will not be liable for loss or damage of any kind suffered by relying on or otherwise arising from the use of this Website (including damage to your computer system) or its content. We provide this content for information dissemination purposes only.

The Website includes the ACAC-QMET Online Repository, which is part of a project funded by the Commonwealth of Australia through the Medical Research Future Fund's grant for the research project 'The Australian Consortium for Aged Care – Quality Measurement Toolbox (ACAC-QMET): Improving Quality of Care through Better Measurement and Evaluation' (MRF2015823). This grant is administered by the University of South Australia. The contents of this website as they relate to the ACAC-QMET Online Repository are solely the responsibility of the partnering institutions and do not reflect the views of the Commonwealth of Australia.

The copyright in material on this Website is held by SAHMRI and its partnering institutions. You may only access, view, download and print content from this Website for your personal, research, study, or other non-commercial use within your organisation. Except as permitted by copyright law, all other uses are prohibited unless you have obtained the prior written consent of the copyright holder. The content of external websites, that are linked from this Website, may be protected by third parties' copyright and we recommend you review the terms of their use prior to access.

If you make use of the content within the ACAC-QMET Online Repository, we request that you provide an attribution as follows: This quality indicator information is from the ACAC-QMET Online Repository, which was curated by the Australian Consortium of Aged Care and is part of a project funded by the Commonwealth of Australia through the Medical Research Future Fund's grant for the research project 'The Australian Consortium for Aged Care – Quality Measurement Toolbox (ACAC-QMET): Improving Quality of Care through Better Measurement and Evaluation' (MRF2015823).

This Website contains trademarks, including registered trademarks. You must not use these trademarks without the prior written permission of the trademark owner(s).

Links provided on the Website to other websites are provided for convenience only. Whilst we take care in our selection of these websites at the time of their inclusion on the Website, we do not continually monitor the contents of these external websites, including those linked in the ACAC-QMET Online Repository. Before you access and use the content of any such external website, you should assess it for your particular purposes. We provide no endorsement or approval as to external website content or any associated organisation.

The Website does not permanently store any user information. Google Analytics is used to track aggregated web usage behaviour, but associated user and event data retention periods are set to the minimum possible.

These Terms of Use are governed by the laws of South Australia.
